The figure shows the observed and expected 95% CL upper limits for the production cross section of the scalar φ decaying to e+e−, as a function of the φ mass (GeV). The CMS Z boson mass region is highlighted, with observed and median expected limits displayed. The expected limits are shown at 68% and 95% confidence levels.